Mauricio Vallina (1970) is an international concert pianist living in Brussels. A profound view of the musical drama, unmistakable lightness, enormous expressive power and a dazzling spectrum of colors are pointed out as hallmark qualities of his rare musical personality. He is a regular concert partner of Martha Argerich and participant on various Festivals like La Roque d'Anthéron, Schleswig-Holstein music festival, Radio France-Montpellier festival, Beppu, Argerichs meeting point, Sintra festival, Lugano festival.

Mauricio Vallina achieved a solid formation at the Moscow Tchaikovsky Conservatory (Master of Fine Arts), the Madrid Royal Conservatory and the Como International Piano Foundation. He has been a top prize-winner of national and international piano competitions where prominent musicians have recognized his gift of individuality. His name is found in the public list of the most prestigious graduate of the Moscow Conservatory.

He serves at the Lions Club Vienna MozART Online Academy for Classical Music and More as an Executive Professor and gives online lessons and master classes internationally.
